C'EST QUI ?

WOWW

A close-up illustration of a character with short, reddish-brown hair. The character is shown in profile, looking towards the right. Their face is flushed with a bright red blush, and several sweat droplets are visible on their forehead and neck. Their mouth is slightly open in a surprised expression. The background is a soft, warm-toned interior space, possibly a room with a desk or table. The overall style is that of a modern digital illustration or comic book panel.
